

UNIVERSITY
OF WARSAW

The Robert Zajonc Institute
for Social Studies

The Robert Zajonc Institute for Social Studies (ISS) at University of Warsaw Invites you to a lecture by

József Böröcz

Professor of Sociology at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
Fulbright Visiting Professor at ISS, University of Warsaw

“Post-Colonial Sensibility and the Post-State-Socialist Context: Considerations for World-Systems Analysts, Global Comparativists, and Other Critical World-Historical Sociologists”

Discussants:

Anna Sosnowska, American Studies Center, University of Warsaw and ISS UW
Tomasz Warczok, Pedagogical University of Cracow and ISS UW.
Tomasz Zarycki, ISS UW.

Lecture and discussion will be held in English.

Friday, December 6th 2019, 4:30 pm (godz. 16:30)

Stawki Street 5/7, Warsaw

Seminar Room No. 417, 4th floor, behind the glass door

Contact: iss@uw.edu.pl

More at facebook page of the event at

<https://www.facebook.com/events/411185613161844/>